The Great Meeting of Soldiers at Philadelphia

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

PHILADELPHIA, Saturday, Oct [illegible] 1868.

THE [illegible] THE [illegible]

At [illegible] o'clock Thursday [illegible] when the [illegible] arrived from Washington the [illegible] city of Brotherly Love was [illegible] humanity. From [illegible] all the [illegible] streets were crowded [illegible] every hour in the day [illegible] was [illegible]. They came from the [illegible] the North the South [illegible] thousands. Everywhere was [illegible] Blue representing [illegible] nearly all [illegible] principal [illegible] each delegation headed by a full band [illegible] playing national airs. The men [illegible] were uniformed and marched in regular order with numerous little stained flags waving over them. The army [illegible] and navy cap the fluttering of the old flag and the sound of fife and drum on every hand recalled the stirring times when hundreds of thousands marched to the field of battle to vindicate at the point of the bayonet the same principles which they are now called upon to maintain at the ballot box.

DELEGATIONS

The delegations were very [illegible] curiously uniformed and marched in separate processions each headed by a full band playing and with banners transparencies and mottoes waving over them. The New York delegation commanded by Gens Sickles and Graham numbered two thousand. The delegation from Allegheny county [illegible] under command of Major [illegible] numbered [illegible] They carried a transparency with these words: "Allegheny county good for ten thousand majority for U. S. Grant." The Camden New Jersey delegation under the lead of Thomas B. Lee carried a transparency representing a starved prisoner in the last agonies of death. Behind the Camden delegation followed the German Veteran Association of Newark New Jersey with a tattered battle flag and appropriate mottoes in German. But it would be impossible to mention all the delegations, for nearly every city was represented from the Capital of the nation which sent several hundred, north to the lakes and from the east of New England to the valley of the Mississippi. Many of the companies had transparencies with the likenesses of Grant and Colfax [illegible] emblazoned with such phrases as "The People's Choice," "Grant us Peace," etc and "We can not forget the prison pens of Andersonville, Libby and Belle Isle," "Woe for Seymour as we did for Lee." Many of the counties of Pennsylvania sent delegations numbering from [illegible] to 1,000 men. Great as was the throng of men it seemed that one half the crowd were ladies attired in their gayest dresses. The weather being fine the Quaker city poured out at least one half of her 800,000 people to witness the grand pageant and they thronged Chestnut street from [illegible] and all the streets on either side for many squares.

FLAGS AND DECORATIONS

The city put on her gayest attire and extended a hearty welcome to all. [illegible] flags of all sizes waved above the housetops and over the streets.

Banners from balcony, banners from steeple,
Banners [illegible] the people,
[illegible]
[illegible] floating [illegible]

Forney's Press building, an immense establishment on the corner of Chestnut and Sixth street, was nearly covered with flags suspended from the windows on all sides from the fifth story down almost to the pavement. A great many of the hotels and other large buildings were decorated in a similar manner.

THE [illegible] IN INDEPENDENCE SQUARE

A little before 3 o'clock [illegible] the evening the various delegations [illegible] Independence Square where they arrived at that hour and were formally welcomed by Mayor Morton McMichael in a [illegible] address. Gen H. A. Barnum of New York responded on behalf of the Soldiers and Sailors. After a few brief remarks by Gen. Burnside, Gen Kilpatrick and ex Governor Curtin the meeting adjourned to meet again at 7 o'clock in the evening.

THE DECORATIONS AT INDEPENDENCE HALL

The front of Old Independence Hall on Chestnut street presented a beautiful appearance. In front was a brilliant representation of the coat of arms of the United States in letters of fire and above from the flag staff the same on which Lincoln hoisted a flag waved the star spangled banner, the rays from the coat of arms lighting up the noble ensign so it gleamed with a silvery radiance. In the rear of the Hall Independence Square extends back to Walnut street, a [illegible] of perhaps 400 feet. The square is ornamented with rows of beautiful elm and maple trees and contains several acres of ground. Along each side of the broad avenue leading up from Walnut street to the rear of the Hall gas pipes were fastened to the trees, and along these pipes and other pipes extending crosswise in the form of arches were numerous gas jets forming letters of fire. Over the center gate on Walnut street in capital letters, were the words, "Freedom to All," with a small star at each end of the sentence and a large star over the centre. Just after entering the gate you passed under another fiery arch containing the words "The soldiers and sailors welcome their comrades." In the center of the avenue was another arch with the words "Grant us Peace." Along either side of the avenue in bolts of fire were "Don't give up the Ship Boys in Blue," and the names of Farragut, Porter, Hooker, Thomas, Meade, Sherman, Sheridan and Grant. In front and above the main stand in the rear of the building were the words "Army and Navy Union and Liberty." Two other stands were erected—one in the south west and one in the south east corner of the square and all were gaily draped with flags.

THE MEETING AND SPEECHES IN THE EVENING

At seven o'clock the square was again [illegible] with thousands of people, a large portion of them ladies who came to hear the speeches and listen to the delightful strains of music that charmed the ear on every side. After electing Gen. Burnside for President of the meeting, and a long list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries addresses were delivered at the various stands by Gen. Kilpatrick, Senator Thayer, of Nebraska, Maj Gen T. L. Kane, Edward Dudley, Lieut. L. L. Reeves, Gen C. C. Carrington, District Attorney of the District of Columbia, Gen O. M. Wilson of Indiana, Capt R. Schlemback, G. H. Halstead, Gen Barnes [illegible], Gen [illegible] of Delaware, Gen. Hawley of Connecticut and several others. Speaking was going on at the same time at Union League Hall and in many other parts of the city. Letters were received and read from Major General J. C. Fremont, Maj Gen S. W. Crawford, Senator Harris [illegible], Gov Crapo of Michigan, Gov Chamberlain of Maine, ex Gov Blair of Michigan, ex Gov Dennison of Ohio and many others.

THE GREAT PARADE OCTOBER 2[illegible]

At an early hour yesterday morning the various companies of Boys in Blue commenced arriving on Broad street in front of the Union League House and forming in line for the procession. [illegible] of people crowded the sidewalks and the sides of the streets for a mile in length. At ten o'clock the procession moved forward over the following route: Down Broad to Spring Garden, down Spring Garden to Twelfth, down Twelfth to Arch, out Arch to Twenty first, down Twenty first to Walnut, down Walnut to Broad, up Broad to Chestnut, down Chestnut to Third, down Third to Walnut, up Walnut to Fourth, down Fourth to Pine, up Pine to Twelfth, up Twelfth to Walnut, out Walnut to Broad, at which point the [illegible] thwart. A [illegible] was densely packed [illegible] with the Chief Marshal [illegible] Burnside and Ex Governor Curtin. Then came another barouche with Gen Sickles, Gen Kilpatrick, Gen Kane and Senator Wilson and an [illegible] abroad and extending for [illegible] length. Each company was [illegible] In fact [illegible] copied [illegible] engagement [illegible] distinguished [illegible] who was cheered from [illegible] Most of the buildings along the line of streets through which the procession passed were decorated with flags—the whole front of many of them almost covered from pavement to roof. Chestnut street was decorated from end to end. All the sidewalks on both sides of every street every window and balcony was crowded with people all cheering and waving flags and handkerchiefs. The windows and balconies were crowded with Philadelphia's fairest daughters and thousands of them were [illegible] unable to get better points. The procession was nearly five hours passing through the various streets and was one hour and twenty five minutes in passing a given point. There were in the line 40 bands each numbering from eight to fifty eight instruments all playing national airs. In the procession marched at least [illegible] men while it would be a low estimate to say that one hundred thousand more formed a living wall along the route and crowded the windows and balconies. But it is impossible to describe in one brief letter the enthusiasm and the magnitude of a demonstration which occupies eighteen to twenty columns in the daily papers and which had to be seen to be appreciated.

SPEECHES AND TORCHLIGHT IN THE EVENING

In the evening there was a grand torchlight procession and the city was one blaze of light and [illegible] Chestnut street was densely packed for [illegible] in length and twenty thousand people of all ages and both sexes crowded Broad street which was brilliantly illuminated to listen to the speeches. From four or five stands all draped with flags and flashing with the names of Grant and Colfax and the names of the leading heroes of the war in letters of fire speeches were made by Forney, Governor Geary, Gen Sickles, Senator Harlan, Gen Stevens, ex Governor Curtin, Gen Kilpatrick, Gov Solomon, Senator Cattell, Gen King, Gov Howley, Major Calhoun, Gen Carrington, General Pangborn and others.

It was a great demonstration, gorgeous, enthusiastic and inspiring. Nothing like it has ever been seen in Philadelphia before and perhaps it never has been equalled on the American continent. A Democrat threw a brickbat into the procession badly wounding Captain Grant of Washington City and another Democrat fired into the ranks causing another man to be seriously and perhaps mortally wounded. With these exceptions there was no disturbance and everything passed off harmoniously. This morning the Boys in Blue are leaving for their respective homes and the Quaker City is assuming her usual quiet appearance.

Seymour's Record—A Fact Brought to Light

[From the Providence Press.]

While the unreconstructed Democrats and late rebels of the South are appealing to the war record of Governor Seymour showing him to have been the true friend of the Confederacy before it became defunct the party in the North are attempting to show [illegible] number of troops which the State placed in the field under his administration and the loyalty of his course by the same record. The attempt [illegible] such antagonistical views is the most ridiculous exhibition of the age. The brilliancy of his war record from the General Forrest standpoint was such that the more timid and fearful of the Northern managers of the party were forced to demand an entire change in the character of Southern speeches and editorials for the few loyal Democrats who were inclined to support Seymour and Blair were getting frightened. The record of Seymour during the war was black enough to suit the most apostate of all the rebel class. It is for that reason that they all support him from Jeff Davis downward. Jeff is out of the country it is true, but his sympathies and wishes are with Seymour and Blair. They [illegible] the candidates of his former civil and military subordinates. The whole rank and file of them are bellowing lustily for the success of the Democratic ticket and its repudiating platform.

Clement L. Vallandigham had the honor of nominating Mr Seymour. We have already stated that Vallandigham owed Seymour a debt of honor which he was bound to pay. The bitter and malignant course of this same Vallandigham who acted as spy and traitor within our lines while our boys were fighting desperately to preserve the Government led to his military arrest by Major General Burnside and his being passed through our lines under military guard to the bosom of his friends the rebels. Horatio Seymour of New York did everything that was possible for him to do and brought all the force of his personal and official influence to save his brother Democrat first from having such a sentence pronounced against him and second from having that sentence executed after it had been pronounced and approved.

This same Horatio Seymour had several interviews with General Burnside expressly for the purpose of preventing the exile of his friend and fellow Democrat Vallandigham. If our Democratic friends want our authority for the statement and want a description of the interviews [illegible] we most respectfully refer them to the present Governor of the State Ambrose E. Burnside and his accomplished Aid at that time Colonel Lewis Richmond. Governor Burnside in a pertinent speech made before the citizens of Bristol last evening made the statement frankly and it was endorsed by Colonel Richmond who was present on one or more of the interviews between Seymour and his chief on this same Vallandigham business. Vallandigham the exiled Val the great apostle of the Democracy to day who was the Northern star of the rebels during the war has paid the debt which he owed to Horatio Seymour. Now if the Executive power of the nation can be made by some hocus pocus to pass into the hands of Seymour this rebel patriot will surely find his reward. Shall he be a member of the Cabinet? The place of grandma Welles is to tame for him. The war portfolio would please him better and Mr Seward's place better still. Or shall he be sent as Minister to the Court of St James or Louis Napoleon? He must have something and that something commensurate with the greatness of his martyrdom in the services in the late Democratic Confederation.

Was Horatio Seymour the confidant of Vallandigham and his fellow rebels in the North during the war? Did he exercise himself and use his office to prevent the just punishment of these besides the exiled Vallandigham? Will our home oratorical [illegible] Boys in Blue and their own party [illegible] the exact standing of Mr Seymour during the war? Shall Wade Hampton be invited to come and enlighten our people and shall he bring Vallandigham with him?

Said an old darkey when Sherman was moving Southward: "I reckon he will win. They [illegible] they say but still he [illegible]

LONDON, Oct 18.—There are rumors of a large reduction of the French army, which inspires confidence in the maintenance of peace and expectations of a [illegible] ation in favor of liberal reforms by Emperor Napoleon, and have a cheerful influence upon public affairs.

The Parliamentary canvass throughout Great Britain is becoming very lively. Several Tory members of the last House of Commons have withdrawn their names as candidates and retired discouraged. The Liberals are confident they will have a majority of thirty five or more on a full vote in the next House.

Roebuck's hostility to the trades unions is [illegible] his success in Sheffield. Gladstone is actively canvassing [illegible] Lancashire where he daily addresses large and enthusiastic meetings.

The succession to the Spanish throne [illegible] undetermined. The choice of Prince Alfred, of England, which had been suggested, is regarded as absurd and impossible because he is a Protestant. The name of Ferdinand, ex King of Portugal, is mentioned with favor. Though he is ultramontane in religion he is regarded as politically liberal and is popular in Spain. He would be unobjectionable to the Emperor Napoleon.

MADRID, Oct 18.—Gen Prim has received the title of Marshal of Spain and Gen Dulce has been [illegible] Duke of Madrid. A deputation of Cubans have arrived at this city and held a consultation with the Central Junta. They have agreed on measures for the gradual abolition of slavery. The Republicans have commenced agitation in Barcelona. They protest against the acts of Generals Prim and Serrano. General Serrano, who has gone to Saragossa, made a speech there. He promised that the Provisional Junta at Madrid should resign at the meeting of the Constitutional Convention. He expressed regret that Olozaga and Rivero were not in the Cabinet, and said the Government needed the aid of one of the eminent statesmen in the work of the reorganization of the State on a liberal basis.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SACRAMENTO, Oct 21.—Nothing heard from San Francisco since the earthquake which occurred at 8 o'clock. Great damage done at the almshouse and Oakland. Will send a report as soon as particulars are ascertained.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 21.—A severe shock of earthquake occurred at five minutes before eight o'clock this morning. Several persons are reported to have been killed and a number wounded by falling walls, etc. Hay[illegible] building on California street is destroyed and many others are seriously injured.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—A severe shock of earthquake occurred at five minutes before eight o'clock this morning. Several buildings were destroyed, among which is the Livingston Block, consisting of a row of one story brick buildings, on the south side of California street, below Sansome. Most of the buildings which were [illegible] injured were in this vicinity and their [illegible] rested upon made ground. Several lives are reported to be lost and a number of people were injured, partly by falling walls and also by runaway teams. The City Hall which was seriously damaged by the earthquake in 1865 is now in an unsafe condition and no business will be done to-day. The people are utterly demoralized and panic stricken. The first shock was from east to west and was prolonged beyond any ever felt before in this place. It was followed by about a dozen light shocks terminating with a heavy shock and was about as heavy as the great shock in 1865. Business on Front street is generally suspended. Advices from Oakland report the long ferry pier damaged so that cars will not be able to run on it for several days.

GRASS VALLEY, Oct 21.—Quite a severe shock of an earthquake was felt here this morning about 8 o'clock, causing lamps to vibrate and occupants of second stories to vacate briskly. About five minutes after there was another very slight shock.

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 21.—The shock here was very slight, being noticed only by a few.

[illegible] Oct 21.—A slight earthquake shock was felt here at seven minutes past 8 o'clock this morning.

The New York Sun is credibly informed that manufacturers of New Haven, Conn., are constantly receiving letters from their customers saying that if Seymour and Blair are elected they shall want but limited supplies, as they think business will, of course be dull.

The New York Herald says New York City will double the Republican vote of last year, and that Grant will certainly carry the State.

What has Become of the Taxes?

Why don't the Radicals tell us how they have disposed of the many hundreds of millions of taxes without paying a dollar of the public debt? Do they know? If they do let them tell. Which of them dares undertake it?—Walla Walla Statesman.

The Radicals will not undertake to tell how they have disposed of the almost countless millions of taxes without paying a dollar of the public debt. That would be an impossible task which would require more abstruse calculations and greater skill in the art of making figures lie than any persons except Democrats possess. But it is an easy matter for the Radicals to explain how they have disposed of the millions of taxes in paying a large portion of the debt which was entailed on the country by the late Democratic rebellion.

We give a statement prepared from the official records of the disposition made by the Republican party of the revenues collected between June 30, 1865 and June 30 1868. We are unable to continue the statement to the present time for want of full official data since June last, but the statement we present is complete for a period of three years following the close of the war and covers a sufficient length of time to make it clear enough what has become of the taxes.

Expenditures during the three fiscal years July 1 1865 to June 30 1868—
Interest 1865-6	$ 133 067 742
1866-7	143 781 512
1867-8	141 635 631
	$ 418 484 885
Paid to army when disbanded for back pay and transportation between June 30 '65 and Dec 31 '65	$ 283 411 [illegible]
Bounties to soldiers	40 38[illegible]
For property lost and destroyed in war	11 000 000
Reimbursements to States	10 430 000
Paid to navy for back pay etc upon close of war, after June 30 '65 for contracts made during war	60 000 000
Civil list, three years (Johnson)	[illegible]
Army expenses, including Indian war three years	185 426 12[illegible]
Pensions	50 000 000
Navy—expenses three years	73 000 000
Freedmen's Bureau	5 617 000
Reconstruction	2 344 [illegible]
Reduction of debt, including cash on hand	274 000 000
National cemeteries and commutation of rations	944 860
Total	$1 500 [illegible]

The Walla Walla paper and its Democratic confreres now have an opportunity to state which of these expenditures they object to. Is it the cost of the Freedman's Bureau? The whole expense of this Bureau for the three years was but $5,617,000, half of which went to feed the destitute whites who had impoverished themselves by fighting to destroy the Government. Compared with the whole sum of money spent, the cost of the Freedman's Bureau is too small an item to take any account of. Is objection made to the cost of reconstruction? This expense foots up but a little over two millions which is about equally divided between Johnson's bogus State governments and the legitimate governments established by Congress. Is objection made to the payment of three hundred millions to the volunteers and navy for back pay after the war closed? Probably these economical Democrats would have kept back the pay of the men who reduced the rebels to obedience and taught them the power of a free people. Is objection made to the payment of nearly fifty million dollars additional bounties to the national soldiers? Perhaps Democrats don't like this expenditure of money because none of it has gone to Copperheads and draft sneaks. Is objection made to the large pension list of fifty millions of dollars, and would Democrats economize by leaving the widows and orphans of dead soldiers and the disabled survivors of the war to starve? Probably they would as they have disfranchised the maimed Union soldiers in the State of Ohio. Is objection made to the civil list? The civil list has been managed by Johnson, who has divided the greater part of the one hundred and forty seven millions among bread-and-butter office holders who support the Democratic party. Under Lincoln's administration the civil list was but little more than half as large as under Johnson, its cost during four years being but $87,564,332. Is objection made to the payment of over four hundred millions of dollars as interest on the public debt? Perhaps Democrats who boast that they loaned no money to "subjugate the South" and never touched a bond would like to issue greenbacks enough to "pay" the debt and thus "save" the interest. Is objection made to the actual reduction of the debt during these three years by the sum of two hundred and forty-seven millions of dollars as shown by a Democratic Secretary of the Treasury? Perhaps Democrats would have repudiated at once, and "saved" this expense. In addition to the sums set down in the table above nearly $50,000,000 have been added to the debt by building the Pacific Railroad. Would Democrats have made a saving here? Probably they would as most of them voted against Government aid for that enterprise. If Democrats feel any further interest in this matter they can examine at their leisure the items of expense we have enumerated and state their further objections to the disposition which has been made of the taxes. Of the fifteen hundred millions expended during the three years nearly four fifths went to pay debts created by the great Democratic rebellion. That is where the taxes have gone.

Republicans! What are you doing to carry Oregon? You can succeed if you make the effort. Your opponents are demoralized and discouraged. They know that their candidates have not the smallest chance of an election and they have not heart to exert themselves in the contest. On the other hand you have everything to encourage and inspirit you. You had to contend against hundreds of illegal votes last June which will not be thrown against you in November because the Democrats have not time to colonize them and will not spend money to do it. If we get out our whole vote we shall have a good chance for success. Republicans up and at them.

With the announcement of the ticket and platform of the Tammany Convention gold began to go up and our national securities to go down. But as the campaign progressed and it became evident that Grant and Colfax would be elected, confidence in money investments revived. And now when it is perfectly certain that the party of repudiation have no chance of taking the government, gold has gone down lower than at any time for two years. Among all financial and business classes a sense of security is felt in the future which can only be explained upon the basis of a prevailing confidence in General Grant's election.

The "Chinese Bill"

Among the many wise doings of the present Legislature is the Chinese bill which has lately passed. There is no citizen of good sense who does not know that it is injurious to the State; there is no lawyer of any learning or judgment who does not know that it is unconstitutional, that it is in violation of the treaties with China, that it is an attempt to nullify the action of the treaty making power of the country and that the Courts will declare it null and void. But it will cause considerable trouble and vexation before judicial decisions can be obtained. We hope the Governor will veto it. The bill is a demagogical attempt to make political capital for certain individuals who claim to be the friends and protectors of the laboring white class of the State. But if this class had no votes the bill would never have been thought of. Any Republican in the Legislature voting for such a humbug measure as this will soon be ashamed of his conduct. Let this bill like all other humbugs of the kind stand as a Democratic measure and if it becomes a law the courts will soon give the wise men of the Oregon Legislature a slap in the face.

It is now universally conceded by the Democrats that General Grant will be elected President. The very first thing President Grant will set about doing will be to reduce the expenses of the Government to the lowest possible cent. He will cut down the outlays of every department and lop off the useless excrescences, abolish all the sinecure offices and stop the cheating and stealing of the revenue by corrupt Copperhead officials by promptly removing them, and filling their places with honest men. He will reduce the expense of collecting the revenue very largely by dismissing a horde of officeholders who under the Johnson Democratic regime, do not earn their salt and are spending their time in electioneering for Seymour and Blair. These fellows will be converted from mere drones into producers; at least they will be obliged to support themselves thereafter. Under Grant's administration we shall have honesty capacity and fidelity in the holders of offices, a saving of taxes and an abatement of peculation and swindling.

The Democratic Convention of Tennessee have declared unequivocally in favor of allowing all negroes to enjoy the right of suffrage who will vote with their party. The following is from the address issued by the Convention:

Let it be universally proclaimed throughout the Democratic party in Tennessee, rank and file, front and rear, that no colored citizen of the State uniting with us for the overthrow of a common tyranny and in the redemption of our noble State shall be disturbed in any of his vested rights, if through his agency our own rights shall be restored to us.

The Red Bluff Independent says that a well known Democrat of that place wrote a letter to a friend in Sacramento, giving him a key by which to send election news naming the several States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Nebraska Tom, Dick, Harry etc. He desired the friend to telegraph "Tom is sick" if the State for which that name stood went Republican; if Democratic "Tom is well." In due time the following dispatch came: The whole family is sick!

Messrs Meacham and Slater will meet in political debate at Oregon City, on Saturday evening and at the Dalles on Monday evening.

PUGET SOUND

Coal is being delivered in Olympia from the mine on Skookum Chuck at $10 per ton.

A man named Phinney had an arm torn off at the Puget Sound Company's mill a short time ago.

The Indian agents have captured nearly all the Indians engaged in the recent massacre at Dungeness.

A little child of Frank Hancock's, on Whidby's Island was burned to death last week by falling into the fireplace.

Judge Dennison's opinion on the civil jurisdiction of San Juan Island, rendered at the September term at Port Townsend, sums up the condition of the island as not such as to justify the courts of the territory in exercising jurisdiction upon it.

The settlers in Pacific county are anxious to have the valleys from Shoalwater Bay surveyed, having already subscribed a large amount to assist the work. No deputy surveyor can be found who will take a government contract at $10 per mile.

Political Brevities

General Charles Devens and H C Lee the Democratic candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts in 1866 are now both warmly supporting Grant and Colfax.

When Democracy was in power, mileage was always charged by members of Congress extra like regular sessions. Republicans have reformed this among other abuses, and no extra mileage will be paid members for the recent sessions of October and November. Make a note of this tax payers and voters.

The New York Commercial after declaring that the Republican organization in that city is better than it ever was says: "We shall have more aid from Democrats than we ever had. The patriotic men of that party will cast their votes for Grant. We cannot be mistaken in saying that the Republican vote in this city will not fall much short of 45,000. We tell our friends in the country to be of good cheer—the skies are bright and just as sure as the coming of November will Grant and Griswold carry New York."

The New York Herald of the 3d inst says that "a large meeting of the Irish Rights Association, a society which numbers in its ranks a number of prominent Irish American citizens and is rapidly extending, met last night at 11 East Broadway. The meeting was called for the purpose of eliciting from the members of the society an expression of opinion on the duty of Irish Americans in the present political crisis. After a good deal of discussion, which was conducted in very good temper, as to the relative merits of the two great political parties from an Irish point of view it was declared unanimously that the Democratic party had forfeited the respect and confidence of the Irish masses and should no longer be supported."

General Dix's endorsement of General Grant, so far from being stimulated by personal antipathy to Governor Seymour, as alleged by some of the Democratic press, found expression as long ago as last January when he wrote from Paris to a friend in New York as follows: "I have thought for a year that Grant should be President. The prestige of his name will enable him to do more than any other man to heal the dissensions which seem to me, at this distance, to be as far from any satisfactory solution as ever. Then he is honest both from instinct and habit and he has good sense, perseverance, and a modest estimate of his own capabilities. I have no doubt that he would call able men to his councils and listen to their advice, and I believe that he would be a firm, conservative and successful Chief Magistrate."

POSTAGE STAMPS.—A Washington dispatch of the 3d gives the following:

Postmaster General Randall, to day accepted the proposal of the National Bank Note Company of New York for furnishing stamps for four years at twenty five and a half cents per thousand. This includes everything required for preparing the stamps for immediate use, gumming, perforating, packing and preparing receipts. The contractors are also required to furnish new designs, at least one half of which must be printed in combination colors.

A priest in New Brunswick N J recently pounced upon and captured three sacrilegious thieves who were rapidly seizing the candlesticks, goblets and other portable gold pieces in the Catholic Church of that city. The priest took them before a police justice by whom they were imprisoned.

[illegible] escaped from the jail at [illegible] by severing a thick oak plank with a common pocket knife and then drilling a hole in the brick wall large enough to admit the passage of his restless body. Truly he earned his freedom.

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM Tuesday Oct 20 1868.

THE CHINA TAX BILL

Chapman's bill to tax and regulate Chinamen and prevent their employment upon public works was the special order in the House this morning shortly after the reading of the journal. A motion to lay it on the table was lost by a vote of twelve to twenty four. A call of the House was ordered and a vote on the bill being taken resulted yeas thirty two nays fourteen.

MINERAL RECONNAISSANCE

Gray introduced a bill in the House to provide for a mineral reconnaissance of the State. Mr Adams introduced a bill in the Senate for the same purpose which appropriates $2,500 for immediate use in payment of expenses of collecting and publishing information on the subject.

A CANAL PROJECT

Mr Jackson introduced a bill appropriating $10,000 from the fund derived from sales of lands donated by Congress for internal improvements to construct a steamboat canal connecting the Tualatin river and Oswego lake. Referred to Special Committee—Cox, Jackson and Trullinger.

TO TAX THE LAWYERS

Mr Minto introduced a bill to provide that persons admitted as attorneys to practice at the bars of the Circuit and Supreme Courts shall pay an initiatory fee—$50 for admission to Supreme Court and $25 for admission to Circuit Court. This if adopted, would be something new, but if Chinamen must pay a tax for the privilege of laboring I can't see why lawyers should not do the same thing.

ADJOURNMENT RESOLUTIONS

Resolutions for an adjournment sine die were introduced in each house to day. In the Senate, the resolution was to adjourn on Friday and was laid upon the table. In the House, the resolution was for an adjournment on Saturday. Mr Chapman moved to amend by striking out the words "adjourn sine die" and insert "take a recess until the first of March next." The resolution and amendment were laid upon the table. There is a disposition on the part of some of the members to hold on for two or three days after the expiration of the constitutional forty days and forty nights, but there is no great liability of such an unheard of act of public spirit being perpetrated.

THE PILOT AND TUGBOAT BILL

The bill to amend the act of October 17, 1860 and the act of October 21, 1864 relating to pilotage on the Columbia and Wallamet rivers, etc was taken up. The blanks for Contracting Commissioners was filled with the names of John Stevenson, H C Leonard and Wm Weatherford and the bill was then passed.

RAILROAD

This morning Mr Chapman introduced a bill to dispose of the contest between the rival Oregon Central Railroads for the grant of land made by Congress of July 1866, and a memorial to Congress. The bill provides that upon the part of the route of the Oregon Central Railroad which lies between Portland and Eugene City the lands granted by the act of Congress shall be equally divided between the two roads, that each company shall select its proportion of the lands upon that side of the Willamette river upon which it is located; that all aid heretofore given or which may hereafter be given by the United States or this State, to aid in the construction of the roads shall be equally divided in like manner; that if either company shall fail within twenty days after the approval of the act to signify its assent to its provisions by filing the same in writing, in the office of Secretary of State such company is not to be entitled to any part of the aid.

The memorial in import is similar to the bill. Both were ordered printed.

The Senate joint resolution designating the East side road as entitled to the land grant was made the special order for seven o'clock this evening. At that hour the House convened and the resolution was taken up. Mr Gray moved to concur and then moved the previous question, but the latter motion was not seconded. Mr Chapman moved that the resolution be referred to a special committee of five with instructions to report the bill and memorial (above mentioned) with such modifications as may be necessary to carry out their spirit. Chapman, Waymire and others spoke for the motion to refer and Gray, Cox and others spoke against. The motion failed by yeas 20 nays 26. Mr Gazley then offered an amendment providing that this designation shall be void unless the company shall give bonds in the sum of $400,000 that they will build the road through the Umpqua and Rogue River valleys. This was lost by a large vote—17 to 24. Flook offered an amendment, but Gray moved the previous question which was sustained and the House came to a direct vote on the motion to concur in the Senate joint resolution with the following result:

Yeas—Messrs Alexander of Linn, Alexander of Benton, Bellinger, Beers, Bryant, Butler, Cox, Crooks, Davenport, Denny, Garrett, Gray, Gilfrey, Johnson, Kirk, Louden, Lichtenthaler, Minto, Powell, Rinehart, Smith, States, Simpson, Trullinger, Tandy, Winston, White, and Mr Speaker—28.

Nays—Applegate, Benson, Burnet, Brown, Chapman, Davis, Flook, Gazley, Grant, Huxter, Jackson, Neal, Pendegast, Ryan, Scoggins, Townsend, Taylor, Waymire—18.

The lobby was crowded the entire evening with spectators interested not only in the result but in hearing the speeches of the members. Upon the adjournment the exultant East siders rushed off to the telegraph office and started the news to all parts of the State.

IN THE SENATE

The bill introduced by Mr Perabbaker of Coos to establish a Board of Pilot Commissioners was reported back from the Committee on Commerce with an amendment making the Board elective by the Legislature and another diverting the moneys arising from fees from the county to the State treasury. The amendments were adopted, whereupon Mr Perabbaker said the bill was now so mutilated that he preferred its defeat to its passage. On this the Senate refused to indefinitely postpone and then voted to pass it.

A resolution was adopted to pay the chief and assistant clerks of the two houses three dollars per day extra pay.

Stout submitted a report from the committee to whom had been referred that part of the Governor's message relating to escheats, stating that there are several suits pending in regard to the estate of Caruthers, that the interests of the State have not been promoted thereby, and expressing the opinion that the State must eventually fail to establish title as against the claimants.

The following bills were passed: For the relief of Wasco county (refunds $207 paid to the State in excess of amount due), bill to make an appropriation for a canal and locks around the falls at Oregon City, bill to change the manner of making assessments.

The most successful publication of the day—the Democratic campaign picture of "Seymour at Home." It presents Horatio in his most pleasing attitude and will be subscribed to by a million or two of voters.

BARMAN BROTHERS take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Portland that they will open to day the second lot of the latest styles of French Beavers, fall colors, Cassimeres, velvet and silk vestings ever brought to [illegible]. They also call the attention of tailors to the large stock of the above line, together with tailoring trimmings, which they are selling wholesale at San Francisco prices.

From the Army Hospital, the bloody battle-field, the mansion of the rich and the humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk, from the mountain top, distant valley and far off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following can be seen at our office:

* * * I have been in the Army Hospital fourteen months speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. Three bottles restored me to speech and made me well again. C H FLAUTE.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Oregon Legislature.

SALEM Oct 21.—To day Gov Woods vetoed the bill making the officers of the Penitentiary elective by the Legislature instead of appointive by the Governor. The message is a good State paper and sets out at length the objections of the Governor to the bill. It states that the contemplated amendment is inimical to the public welfare, inasmuch as changes in the officers of the Penitentiary would occur every two years; that it would occasion a centralization of power, a thing jealously guarded against by our institutions, because the powers of the Government are divided as near as may be between the Legislative, judicial and executive. Another objection was that the bill was not constitutional, inasmuch as it is not one of such emergency as contemplated by the Constitution. On motion of Cox the bill and message were made the special order for this evening at 7 o'clock.

The afternoon was taken up with the third reading of bills.

The bill amending the corporate power of the city of Portland passed. Bill creating a Department of Statistics and Immigration passed.

Mr Cornelius from Select Committee reported favorable upon the Dalles railroad memorial. It was once defeated by striking out a portion and then adopted by 16 to [illegible].

The bill to regulate the sale of school lands is occupying the attention of the day. During the debate an amendment was offered to provide for clerical aid to each of the land commissioners.

Stout and Trevitt gave expression to feelings towards the [illegible] of the bill to make the office of Superintendent of the Penitentiary elective by the Legislature. The bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee with instructions to report a bill to repeal the law providing for compensation to the commissioners.

The Senate refused to take up the resolution to adjourn sine die.

Cornelius introduced a bill to provide for the erection of an insane asylum. The bill was referred.

Thompson offered a joint resolution giving the consent of the State and asking the consent of Congress to change the boundaries of Oregon and Washington Territory, making Oregon include all west of the Columbia and Washington all east of the mountains. Referred.

IT IS AN INVARIABLE LAW OF NATURE that every human being shall do those acts which he thinks will be of good to him and that he shall avoid those acts which may occasion a loss to him or the family he is a member of. In conformity with that law it is the duty of every person to purchase of Kohn & Fishel all the goods they may be in need of. The fair sex, who certainly are always most happy to comply with all things beneficial to themselves and families, should not fail to examine the fine and extensive stock of Kohn & Fishel, and they will confess their stock of Dry Goods to be of superior quality and at figures below other houses. Men, more [illegible] and less calculating than our fair ladies, will be convinced that Kohn & Fishel are the leaders of fashion, the lowest in price, and no man should wear clothes unless they are purchased at Kohn & Fishel's, No. 91 Front street.

A Beacon of Health.—The good things of this world have each their appointed mission. It is the mission of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS to prevent and relieve a great variety of ailments. For twelve years its success as a protective and a remedy has been without check or drawback. It is strong negative evidence of this fact that the efficacy of the article for dyspepsia, bilious ness, constipation, nervousness, general debility and intermittent fevers, has never been questioned.

As proof positive of its infallibility in such cases the statements of public men whose names are familiar as household words have from time to time been given to the world.

If its reputation is not founded in facts, then truth is a shadow and the utterances of conscientious citizens are of no more value than idlers' tattle.

And what is its reputation? Let the progress of its sales answer the inquiry. ... where twenty dozen bottles of Hostetter's Bitters were sold in 1858, five hundred dozen are disposed of now.

Could public opinion be more significantly expressed than by its unparalleled increase of consumption? It seems impossible.

The preparation has been imitated. Where are the imitators? Echo answers: Where? To the limbo of things lost on earth they are all either gone or going. Peace be with them.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions ... the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

With [illegible]
At the [illegible] Wade Hampton

We [illegible]
With Thomas and with Sherman
This [illegible] at my side,
A [illegible]
These three with Banks were [illegible],
Long marched among the [illegible],
I lost my arm on [illegible]
A soldier of Ohio

Then with their ancient battle yell,
The hospitable yeomen
Rushed from their thresholds forth to fell
Their [illegible]
Go back, ye crippled myrmidons
Ye Yankees and ye [illegible]
Our Georgia [illegible]
Admit no carpet baggers

"Nay brethren, not as soldiers come
With knapsacks and with sabres
Behind the [illegible]
We meet you, friends and neighbors
Our spear it is the pruning hook
For war to make repayment
Our knapsack is the carpet bag
To bear our [illegible]

"Therein a few good books we bring
To feed our higher natures
The Psalms the Pilgrims used to sing,
The Testaments, their teachers,
The [illegible] which dignify our fate,
And make our toil inviting
The [illegible] of our common state
Crowned by our fathers fighting

"Between us lies our holy truce
Above us God's religion
To bid us turn to purer use
This army trampled region,
The softness of the land we saw
When violences wrung you
And in this better time of law
We seek a home among you!"

Still menaced these the Georgia braves,
With rifles and with daggers
'Your peace we hate—we curse the State'
Go back, ye carpet baggers
Your books and [illegible] we contemn!
Our sires they were but [illegible]
As for our truce it was a ruse—
Go back, ye carpet baggers

Forth drove they then these peaceful men
Across their fields of story
The children mock them as they go
In scorn the [illegible] glory
But reverent the [illegible]
To say, Our freedom [illegible]
Since died the dear [illegible] of your drum
Oh, stay ye travel [illegible]

"Stay, till the ballot we have found,
Or ye and we may perish
Right neighborly the grateful ground
Together we will cherish,
And deeper than our ploughshares go,
Than treason's threats or daggers
Till peace and freedom stalwart grow
To hail all carpet baggers"

Gen. Grant Sketched by a Clergyman

Rev. R. P. Stebbins, D. D., in a letter to the Monthly Religious Magazine, giving his experience of "Six Months in Washington," thus alludes to Gen. Grant:

"Of the modest, retired, unassuming men which we may chance to meet in Washington, Gen. Grant is the chief. He hates parade, as he hates hypocrisy. He loves frankness as he loves life. He is too indifferent about his ordinary dress and appearance, a little more regard to his attire would be better. In any gathering of a hundred men, he would be the last who would be selected by a stranger as the favorite of a nation, the great captain of the age. He is easy in his manners, and ready and free in conversation. His voice is very pleasant and his language good. He indulges in no extravagant or strong expressions. When anything is said complimentary of himself, he is silent—entirely silent, he has not even a "Thank ye" to give in response, which makes one feel rather awkward. Whether he so detests compliments, however discreetly worded and heartily spoken, that he will not respond, or whether his modesty paralyses his tongue, is not clear. He evidently has no fund of small talk.

"His conversation, when I saw him in his library at his house, was full of good sense and free from all exaggeration. It was marked by a freeness of criticism on men and measures which I did not expect from one of whose reticence I had heard so much. Yet there was no bitterness of feeling manifested when he spoke of those who had wronged him most. He even made excuses for the course of one eminent man who has been his most active opponent, and whose friends with or without his knowledge and approval, had circulated the basest slanders about the General throughout the country. He is evidently a man of sound, practical judgment, not a visionary, not given even to theorizing. He has no theories. It was evident that all his ideas had been tested by practice. I was happily disappointed by my interview with him. I had my fears respecting his qualification for civil life, though his wise administration of affairs during the year in the seceding States had compelled me to modify my opinion.

"I left him with confidence that he would, as President, eclipse his fame as General. Thousands of stories have been circulated throughout the country respecting his private habits, which are utterly false. Whatever may have been truest some period of his past life—of that I know nothing—his life is now irreproachable. His speech is free from the expletives which so dishonor so many of our public men. His inveterate smoking is his only habit. It is to be hoped that he will restrain, or abandon utterly, this. But of all the bad habits in which a public man may indulge in Washington, this is the least harmful. No one, after an interview with the General, will have any fear that he will be bought or sold, wheedled or driven. Integrity and good sense are Grant's prime virtues, neither bribery or sophistry can flank these. He is a rock which the wave of opposition and the sunshine of favor can neither move nor melt. If he is chosen President he will honor the chair of State by filling it with integrity, if not with grace."

The River Amazon

The American journals continue to give great praise to Brazil for the liberal policy that has prompted her to throw open the Amazon to the commerce of the world. With regard to the probable consequences of that measure, one writer, the Rev. J. C. Fletcher, states as follows:

The opening of the Amazon, which occurred on the 7th of September, 1867, and by which the great river is free to all nations from the Atlantic to Peru, and the abrogation of the monopoly of the coast trade from the Amazon to the Rio Grande do Sul, whereby 4,000 miles of Brazilian seacoast are open to the vessels of every country, cannot fail not only to develop the resources of Brazil, but will prove a great benefit to the bordering Hispano American republics and to the maritime nations of the earth. The opening of the Amazon is the most significant indication that the leaven of old, narrow, monopolistic Portuguese conservatism has at last worked out. Portugal would not allow Humboldt to enter the Amazon valley in Brazil. The result of the new policy is beyond the most sanguine expectation. The exports and imports for Para for October and November, 1867, were double those of 1866. This is but the beginning. Soon it will be found that it is cheaper for all Bolivia, Peru, Ecuador, and New Grenada east of the Andes to receive their goods from and to export their India rubber, chicona, etc., to the United States and Europe via the great water highway which discharges into the Atlantic, than by the long, circuitous route of Cape Horn, or the trans Isthmian route of Panama. The Purus and Madeira are hereafter to be navigated by steamers. The valley of the Amazon in Brazil is as large as the area of the United States east of Colorado, while the whole valley of the Amazon in and out of Brazil is equal to all of the United States east of California, Oregon and Washington Territory, and yet the population is not equal to the single city of Rio de Janeiro, or the combined inhabitants of Boston and Chicago. It is estimated that a larger population can be sustained in the valley of the Amazon than elsewhere on the globe.

Parton, in the Atlantic, tells of an old man of fortune, residing in the city of New York who confesses to taking fifty drinks a day of whisky, ten drinks to a bottle and five bottles to a gallon. One gallon of liquor a days goes down his old throat every day of the year. Before he is fit to [illegible] his breakfast in the morning he has to drink twelve glasses of whisky [illegible]. Nevertheless [illegible] hours in the morning to [illegible] what people of property and leisure call business and during a part of the evening, to converse in such a way as to amuse persons who can look on and see a human being in such bondage without stopping to think what a tragedy it is. This old boy never has to be carried home I believe. He is one of those most hopeless drunkards who never get drunk, never wallow in the gutter, never do anything to scare or startle them into an attempt to reform.

Mr. Zachariah Wilson, Portland, Oregon, writes,

"It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the scrutiny or test of public experiments. Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting. The astonishing efficacy that I experienced in its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago of long standing [illegible] Dr. Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Kidney Distressing Pains etc."

John English of Howell Prairie, Marion county, Oregon writes:

"I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities, accompanied with a severe cough for two months, so that I had to use crutches [illegible]. The Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief and I was able to walk in four days without crutches. I have not felt any rheumatism since. I have seen it [illegible] used with excellent success. I have no [illegible] saying it is the best preparation for family use ever [illegible] for those complaints. I am now on my way to [illegible] America after residing in Oregon twenty years. I must now have two dozen Balsam and two dozen [illegible] Magic Oil dollar bottles as I am sure they are the best remedies in Oregon, and [illegible] when this package [illegible] I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply. SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

TO THE ENTERPRISING
Farmers of Oregon!
CASTONS'S X-L-SIOR
BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR SAVING MACHINE which has already been adopted in nearly every agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been presented, has been brought to Portland by who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon, and is now ready to accommodate the farmers of this State with machines, and to sell county rights to manufacture the same.

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine, the same team being used for sowing and harrowing as is used for harrowing alone, the farmer or his boy riding and driving his team, instead of walking and carrying his heavy sack and then walking and dragging his grain in.

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines, and has happily succeeded in this invention in producing a machine which, while it carries the farmer as if on a sulky, sows wheat, barley, oats and peas with greater regularity than the same can be sown by hand, and at the same time the harrow attached to it, immediately behind, covers the grain and the labor is done. Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that the X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save its entire cost in labor alone—to say nothing of its saving in seed—in sowing comparatively but few acres and we have placed an important estimate upon the enterprise of our Oregon farmers if this machine is not generally adopted in this State as it has already been in California, and where the farmers write to the inventors respecting it after this manner:

LINCOLN, (Placer Co.) Sept. 5, '68

MR. H. A. CASTON—Dear Sir, I have two complete machines (X-L-SIOR) which I challenge the State to beat for sowing grain. I have not as many fingers in the shaft as you directed, but I do not want my machines to sow any better than they do. I have sowed and gauged them perfectly.
T. C. PURINGTON

By addressing or calling upon Mr. Brusie at C. Hopkins', corner of Front and Morrison streets, in this city, machines or County Rights to manufacture and sell the machines can be purchased at reasonable rates.

EXTINGUISHER
PORTABLE
SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered.

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand.

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement.

It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years.

It puts out Fire instantly.

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose.

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman.

It is portable, and as easily handled as a bucket of water.

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump, and as effective as a Steam Engine.

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphtaline, and combustible materials now in common use.

TO ALL WHO ARE INTERESTED
IN THE TRIUMPH OF REPUBLICAN PRINCIPLES

THE "IRISH REPUBLIC" NEWSPAPER, PUBlished in New York City is devoted to the promulgation of the principles of the Republican party. It is now engaged in a bitter and most arduous struggle with all the reactionary elements which have so long controlled the votes of adopted citizens of Irish birth. Its circulation and influence are being widely extended, but as in all such enterprises the results are all consumed in the effort of maintaining and extending that influence. The paper is a large and handsome Weekly, published at a uniform price of five dollars per annum. We propose to devote our columns to the great work of the pending campaign. We will send the Irish Republic for four months for ONE DOLLAR, in packages of ten and upwards.

Members of Congress and all who are concerned in the triumph of Republican principles will find the Republic an efficient campaign document.

We heartily concur in recommending the Irish Republic as an efficient and able ally of the Republican party. We believe its circulation as suggested will do great good to the cause.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering with a miserable existence from the effects of excess in indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this fearful situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cured and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doct. Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, foted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use. For Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. jy6d1yf

HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE · NATHANIEL DELL,
A. L. WALLACE, · G. H. WARD
Mrs. MONTGOMERY · JOHN M. HOLLOWAY
W. D. PORTER · ROB'T RAMSEY

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.
